The Houston Police Department will hold a Truck Enforcement Day event at the Second Baptist Church on US 59. The event will be on April 10, starting at 8:00 am.

The next meeting of the Kingwood Positive Interaction Program is Tuesday, March 18, 2008. It will be held at the Kingwood Church of Christ, 2901 Woodland Hills Dr. at 7:00 p.m. Sgt. Glenn Smart from HPD Gang Division will be the guest speaker.

The Gang Division is committed to reducing violent crime in the City of Houston through shared expertise, intelligence and manpower. To accomplish this goal, a task force was formed consisting of members from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Houston HIDTA, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), the Immigration and Custom Enforcement (ICE), the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), the Army National Guard, the Harris County Sheriff's Department, and the Houston Police Department's Gang, Homicide, Robbery, Major Offenders, Narcotics, and patrol divisions. The goal of this initiative is to arrest and prosecute targeted gang members in an effort to disrupt and dismantle their violent organizations. The strategy is to focus on investigations of violent crimes committed by gang members and proactively target individual gang leaders.

PIP meetings are the perfect venue for all residents and the Houston Police Department to share concerns and to develop ideas to make Kingwood a safer community.

Fire Chief Davis has retired. Randy Hartman is the new chief in Kingwood.
